PhD: Mulga management and governance [1]

Supervisors:

A) Professor Jeremy Russell-Smith B) Dr Neil Burrows Charles Darwin University

This project will examine the nexus between community and project governance, logistics and workforce mobilisation in the remote desert communities of central and western Australia. The project will provide the knowledge and advice required to operationalise technical information derived from the core Bushfire and Natural Hazards CRC project into management of fire in the mulga lands for sustainable livelihoods. Large parts of the central Australian deserts have been unable to gene
